

In the Spirit of the Covenant

Interim Report (2005) of the Joint Implementation Commission under the Covenant between The Methodist Church of Great Britain and The Church of England

Published on behalf of the Joint Implementation Commission by Methodist Publishing House, September 2005.

The Methodist Conference and the General Synod of the Church of England approved the Anglican-Methodist Covenant for England in 2003 by large majorities. This is the first interim report of the Joint Implementation Commission set up to monitor and promote the implementation of the Covenant. The report makes known and commends as good practice particular developments under the Covenant, in various areas of life of our two churches. It provides substantial resources for the process of reflection and prayer about some of the issues that continue to divide us at this stage that Methodists and Anglicans need to engage in, separately and together, centrally and locally. The report will help Anglicans and Methodists in England both to make the Covenant a practical reality now and to chart the direction in which we need to move, in the spirit of the Covenant, to a further phase of visible unity. It is intended to stimulate thought, prayer, response and action throughout the two churches.
